

National Internet Trefoil Guild

The Internet Guild provides a social network to enable those interested who, at the moment might not be able to join a Guild due to their geography or mobility, to belong to a Trefoil Guild. It also provides a means for members to be in contact with other members to continue and form friendships.

The Guild has been created on the social networking site Facebook and is totally secure. It is administered by a Trefoil Guild member (the Guild Chairman) who is responsible for dealing with all aspects of the Internet Guild.

All members also have access to the Trefoil Guild Website for all information on the UK Trefoil Guild, its members and activities.

Membership is open to anyone, as outlined in the Constitution of the Trefoil Guild, who subscribes to the aims and principles of The Guide or Scout Association and

- has made the Guide or Scout Promise
- is willing to make the Guide Promise as soon as possible OR
- subscribes to the aims and principles of The Guide or Scout Association but is unable, for good reason, to make the Guide or Scout Promise

The aims and principles of the Trefoil Guild are:

- to keep alive among members the spirit of the Guide and Scout Promises and Laws
- to carry that spirit into the communities in which members live and work
- to give practical, financial and moral support to Guiding and Scouting

How to join

Completed the Membership Form and send it direct by email to:-

The Trefoil Guild Office, 17-19 Buckingham Palace Road, London, SW1W 0PT

together with any fee as necessary - see below. On receipt of your Form the Trefoil Guild Office will advise the Internet Guild Chairman who will email an invitation from the Internet Guild for you to join.
